Finding My Way in the Labyrinth

Maggie Perrone, RN, MA

There are times we find ourselves walking new and different paths in our lives. Some are rocky, some are smooth, but all are ours to travel. I invite you to take a day away to reflect on these paths of our lives using the labyrinth as a contemplative prayer tool. Through two guided walks, journaling, time in reflection, art and poetry we will explore these paths we have walked, past, present and future, difficult and joyful, and in the process exploring how all of them, all the while, have been leading us home, to ourselves. Maggie is executive director of GenuineJourneys, a company dedicated to enriching spiritual life. She is also an emergency room nurse, mother, retreat leader and advanced labyrinth facilitator. Lunch included.

Cost: $55 ($50 if paid in full by September 29)
